The Camp Counselor Intern will work with the Aldrich Education department and the Camp Teaching Artist by supporting innovative, enriching, and creative art-making programming for youth grades 1 through 6 during Camp Aldrich 2024.

The Camp Counselor Intern will be responsible for:

- Supporting 15 days of Camp in collaboration with the Teaching Artist and fellow Camp Counselor Intern at the times outlined above
- Facilitating age-appropriate lessons for camp that will be developed, shared, and led by the Teaching Artist, as approved by Museum staff
- Preparing materials and equipment in advance of camp lessons each day, as well as assuming the responsibility of clean-up and organization of the Museum Studio during and after programming each day

The Camp Counselor Intern will be responsible for providing their own transportation to and from The Aldrich for all programming and will be subject to a background check for clearance to work with minors (if 18 years of age or older).

Qualifications

- No prior experience necessary, but enthusiasm for connecting with youth and an interest in contemporary art is a must
- Excellent interpersonal, oral, and written communication skills

Please send a cover letter and resume to: aldrichedu@thealdrich.org, with the subject line "Camp Counselor Intern." Qualified candidates will be contacted. No phone calls, please.
